He called His friends together for dinner one last time
He said, "one of you will betray me, and that of which is not mine."
So before they ate, He told this certain guest that He could be excused
And while the rest of them prayed, an offer was made that just could not be refused.

When He broke the bread, He said, "this is my body, which has been given up for you"
And when He poured the wine, He said, "this is the divine Blood of Life that's everlasting and new."
Then after the feast, when man sleeps cause the flesh is weak, He said, "rise, my betrayer's at hand."
And the soldiers came and took Him away, just like it was planned....

Gb2 Ab Db
Do you know this Man?
Gb2 Db Ab
Do you know this Man?
Gb2 Db Ab/C Bbm7
Have you let in the love that poured from His hands?
Gb2 Ab Bbm Gb2 Ab Db
Do you know this Man? Do you know this Man?

...and when they beat Him, He stood alone. Even His friends had fled, cause they feared for their lives, they even told lies. "We don't know that guy," they said.
And when they took Him to the judge and he announced, "He's done no wrong to condemn,"
The people, they yelled and threatened to rebel. Only His life would silence them...

BRIDGE:

(Ab/C) Bbm7 Ab Gb2 (Ab)
...they tore off His clothes, whipped Him to the bone, and beat a thorn crown in His head...
Bbm7 Ab Gb2
Then they took this Man, drove nails in His hands, and with one last breath He cried...
Eb/G
But the only reason that He died
Gb2 Db/F Bbm Ab
Was for our lies, our greed, our egos that we feed, our mouths, our sex, our pride and complex,
B6 Bbm Amaj7
Our rage, our hate, to forgive and consecrate, the Ultimate Price was paid
Ab (to last chorus)
But it's never too late...
